

Master Class: GDPR General Data Protection Regulations

Date: 18th January | 9am -12 noon
Venue: Mercury House, Nottingham

Practical advice around GDPR compliance for SME's

This Master Class is ideally suited to SME's (Small to Medium Enterprises).

This is an interactive session, taking you through an SME case study and the compliance issues it may face.

Key subjects will include:

- The difference between DPA and GDPR
- Ten steps your business needs to take now.
- Practical advice and support to help navigate you through the GDPR compliance process.

LIMITED PLACES!

Book your place online:
nbv.co.uk/events/

or email:
enquiries@nbv.co.uk

Delivery Partners:

This Master Class is delivered in conjunction with Austin Moore and Partners LLP.

Austin Moore & Partners is a Nottingham based law firm, founded in 2013, who specialise in corporate, property and commercial law. They also specialise in employment law, HR solutions and intellectual property.

Natalie Thompson has a Bachelor of Law (Hons) from NTU and a post graduate diploma in legal practices from the London College of Law. Natalie has been delivering support and advice to the business community for over 10 years.

Louise Taylor is a partner and solicitor at Austin Moore & Partners. Louise has over 17 years' experience of working with businesses, advising on commercial and IT contracts, and IP.